

Please be advised that our practice (MATLV) will not make unsolicited calls or send unsolicited correspondence asking for sensitive personal information, demand money or promote medical products. You should always verify with whom you are speaking to in regard to healthcare discussions.

If you suspect a scam, hang up and call our office directly to verify that we called you. NEVER provide private information unless you have confirmed who you are talking to.